

HONOR FLAG

PATRIOTIC EXERCISES AT ELKS' CLUB ARE LARGELY ATTENDED

An audience which made necessary the importation of many chairs to the auditorium of the Elks' Lodge until there was scarce space for the display of the work in connection with the Flag Day ritual, assembled Monday evening in response to the organization's general invitation to the public to participate with them in the service to honor Old Glory. Not only was every seat occupied but the hall and corridor was filled with late comers and members who relinquished their seats to guests.

Exalted Ruler Fanset presided and on the platform with him were Past Exalted Rulers Albert D. Pearce, Bert Woodard, Cameron Thom, and the speaker of the evening, Judge Lewis Works, Past Exalted Ruler of San Diego Lodge No. 168.

Before the program opened the lodge orchestra played for the entertainment of the waiting audience and also as an interlude during the ritualistic Flag Drill exercise put on by officers of the lodge.

Flags were everywhere, draping the elks' heads on the four sides of the hall, covering the altar in the center of the room above which hung the illuminated green star, and hanging from standards on the platform. At the west end of the hall hung the service banner of the lodge. Upon the breast of every member as he entered the lodge was pinned a small flag.

The program opened with the entrance of the Drill Team in white uniforms, led by Captain Wattles and a lieutenant bearing a handsome gold-fringed silk flag. Making the circuit of the hall twice, they assembled in front of the platform where Exalted Ruler Fanset and his associates greeted them and received the flag. The drill team then retired and the Exalted Ruler opened the ceremonies by a brief address in which he set forth the purpose of the special service to honor the flag of our country and celebrate its birth. To be an Elk, he declared, is to be an American citizen and patriot.

He then called upon Chaplain McBryde, who advanced to the altar and invoked the divine blessing.

Beginning the ritualistic service adopted in 1908 and made mandatory upon all Elks' lodges, he called upon the Esteemed Lecturing Knight, the Esteemed Loyal Knight, the Esteemed Leading Knight to state the principles upon which the order is founded and the principles of which the flag is the emblem—charity, fidelity and brotherly love.

The Esteemed Loyal Knight, Arthur Dibbern, then gave the history of the flag and the various changes it had undergone from its first inception. His speech evoked great applause.

The league quartet consisting of George Blix, first tenor; Jack Goode, second tenor; Jack Wagon, baritone, and Jack Rockwell, bass, then sang a flag song so beautifully that the audience was carried away and applauded with such enthusiasm that the service was interrupted until the Exalted Ruler explained that the quartet would sing later, which it did, giving that time a love song.

The beautiful ceremony of the building of the floral bell of liberty by the three knights and the Exalted Ruler then took place, and eleven solemn strokes of the bell sounded in memory of the brothers no longer.

HURT IN AUTO SMASH

O. G. THOMPSON INJURED WHEN HIS MACHINE WAS WRECKED

Orville G. Thompson, brief mention of whose auto accident was made in yesterday's Evening News, suffered several injuries in the mishap. When his machine was struck by that of Dr. Bullard of Los Angeles as he was coming out of his driveway, he was thrown through his windshield and considerably cut and bruised about the face and his back was wrenched. His machine was struck on the left side, his wife says, pushed along 150 feet and thrown over the curb into a vacant lot, breaking off a young camphor tree that was on the parkway.

Mr. Thompson is a carpenter and is working on the remodeling of a house at 419 East Colorado. Though suffering from his injuries he is keeping pluckily at the job because the house is partly torn down. His machine was almost a complete wreck and he thinks himself fortunate in escaping without more serious injuries.

MUSIC SECTION

PROSPEROUS YEAR ENDS WITH LUNCHEON AND "REMINISCENCE PROGRAM"

The White Inn bore a festive appearance on Monday, the occasion being the closing meeting of the Music Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club which took the form of a luncheon and was attended by fifty members and guests. The tables were beautifully decorated with bowls of Dorothy Perkins roses, and small silk American flags commemorative of the day were grouped at intervals, while place cards bearing a musical phrase typified the spirit of the occasion.

Mrs. Charles A. Parker, curator, called upon Mrs. E. H. Willisford to give the opening prayer and then introduced Mrs. Cecil Frankel, president of the Federated Music Clubs of California, who spoke on the value of Music Sections and Music Clubs and emphasized the great and fundamental need of the teaching of appreciation of music. Mrs. A. R. Gates followed with a talk on "Local Grand Opera," and "Music Settlement Work in Los Angeles," for which she requested the co-operation of the Music Section. This, she declared, is Americanization work, indeed, and made the statement that people with music in their souls could not go far wrong.

Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, vice-president of the California Federation of Music Clubs, gave a brief summary of the bills which are to come up relating to the advancement of the study of music and asked for support in putting them through, especially the bill to provide for a National Conservatory of Music.

Mrs. Calvin Whiting gave a report of the Convention of Music of the Federated Clubs, which was held in Fresno in May.

As Mrs. Parker was about to introduce the new curator, Mrs. Chas. Marlenee, Mrs. G. D. Roach stepped forward, and in charming manner presented flowers to Mrs. Parker with the following little speech:

"On an occasion of this kind, when we come together to bring to a close a successful year's work, and to welcome our new officers, there is always a note of sadness creeps in when the time comes to relinquish our old officers, who have served so faithfully during the past season. While we are looking forward to a wonderful year under the direction of our new curator (the world would surely be at a standstill if we were not always looking forward to bigger and better things), it would require a vivid imagination to foresee a finer or more harmonious year, than the one just closing under the leadership of Mrs. Parker. She has given most unselfishly of her time and talents at all times. Her interest in the section has been unflagging, and it is needless to mention the splendid and clever result, when she and Mrs. Hagood put their heads together. Those of us

LAMPERTS ON THEIR JOURNEY

John P. Lampert, ex-city marshal of Glendale, and his wife, are now in Salinas county for a few days' visit with their daughter, Mrs. Christy, and her husband, who went there to live immediately after their marriage. The Lamperts are in their machine, and from Salinas they will travel leisurely through Oregon and Washington, then go to Minnesota, Illinois, Oklahoma and Texas, covering several thousand miles in the three or four months they expect to be absent from Glendale. They have relatives in all the states they expect to visit.

PROTECTION OF FLOOD CONTROL WORK

The City Trustees have very wisely taken steps to protect the flood control work along the sides of Verdugo Wash from old Verdugo Park to the west city limits by passing an ordinance forbidding the cutting of wires, removal of brush and the starting of fires within 50 feet of such work. The ordinance also provides that persons, firms or corporations wishing to use sand from the Wash channel, must take out permits designating the location from which they wish to remove the sand and pay certain fixed fees.

L. H. Bess, the returned soldier boy who started a welding and brazing business at 614 East Wilson avenue and later moved to 217 East Broadway, has been employed by the Glendale Sheet Metal Works, 127 North Broadway, to conduct a welding and brazing department of their business.

NOTHING TO SAY

SENATOR HIRAM JOHNSON REFUSED TO BE INTERVIEWED ON REACHING WASHINGTON

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Senator Hiram Johnson today was at his home at Riverdale, Maryland, a suburb of Washington. At his home it was stated that it might be a day or two before Johnson would go to his office and that he would probably have nothing to say on politics in the meantime.

Johnson himself refused any statement of his plans when he reached Washington.

JACK JOHNSON NEAR ARREST

HAS BEEN ORDERED OUT OF LOWER CALIFORNIA AND IS WANTED IN CHICAGO ON FEDERAL CHARGE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SAN DIEGO, June 15.—United States immigration authorities expect to have Jack Johnson, pugilist, under arrest before night. Cantu officials at Tia Juana where Johnson has been in the cafe business for several months, stated today that he had been given 24 hours to leave Lower California.

Johnson has been a fugitive from justice for several years being wanted in Chicago on a charge of violating the Mann law.

MEXICO NOT DISMAYED

OFFICIALS OF REVOLUTIONARY GOVERNMENT PROMISE PEACEFUL RELATIONS WITH U. S.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

MEXICO CITY, June 15.—Peaceful relations between Mexico and the United States will continue regardless of the policies that may be pursued by the next American administration, officials of the revolutionary government declared today in discussing the nomination of Senator Harding as the presidential candidate of the Republican party.

NOMINATION ACCEPTANCE

SENATOR HARDING AT WORK UPON HIS SPEECH WHICH WILL PROBABLY BE DELIVERED AT MARION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Senator Harding today began the preparation of his speech formally accepting the Republican presidential nomination. It will be delivered when formal notification ceremonies are held.

The speech will be Harding's personal platform on which he will seek support. Harding will confer with many leaders before completing his speech which probably will be delivered at Marion, Ohio, July 1.

TRAIN WRECK IN COLORADO

SEVERAL KILLED AND THIRTY INJURED IN WRECK OF SANTA FE PASSENGER NEAR LA JUNTA

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LA JUNTA, Colo., June 15.—Three persons were killed and several probably fatally injured in the wreck of Santa Fe passenger train No. 4, twelve miles west of La Junta this morning. Over thirty passengers were injured. One woman passenger died.

Two relief trains carrying virtually all the doctors and nurses in La Junta went to the scene of the wreck. The injured and dead were brought here. The train was eastbound for Kansas City.

PROCTOR FLAYS "OLD GUARD"

BRANDS NICHOLAS MURRAY BUTLER'S STATEMENTS REGARDING GENERAL WOOD AS FALSE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CINCINNATI, June 15.—William C. Proctor, millionaire soap manufacturer and the admitted contributor of $500,000 to General Wood's presidential nomination campaign, today issued a statement flaying the Old Guard and Nicholas Murray Butler of New York for Wood's defeat.

Proctor was especially incensed at Butler for the latter's alleged statement that "Wood's campaign was backed by financial gamblers."

"That statement is maliciously false," said Proctor. "No contributions were made to General Wood's campaign besides those I mentioned in my testimony before the Senate investigating committee. Butler is trying to square 'the old guard' for what they did to General Wood."

DEMPSEY FOUND NOT GUILTY

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15.—William Harrison Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world, was found not guilty of draft evasion by a jury in the federal court today. The verdict was rendered after the jury had deliberated less than half an hour.

FAME BRINGS WORK

FREDERICK O'BRIEN OVERWHELMED WITH DEMANDS FOR STORIES, SCENARIOS

Mrs. Frederick O'Brien of 501 S. Pacific avenue says in response to inquiries that her husband is still in San Francisco working like a Trojan to meet all the demands upon him that are the outgrowth of the great popularity of his "White Shadows in the South Sea." He is very busy preparing a scenario that is to be produced in the fall. He has a story in the June "Century" that he considers the best thing he has ever written.

He also has one in the June "Harper's Bazaar" under the title, "The Taboo of Womoa," and in that connection his picture is published with the editorial comment: "Frederick O'Brien is the most discussed literary figure in the passing quarter. A wanderer in strange places, O'Brien is only happy when he can hear the pounding of the restless sea. The praise that comes to him from every side these days means little and now, in the midst of feting and dining that would turn the head of a lesser man, this genial genius is straining to be off again on his travels."

Mrs. O'Brien says this is literally true, that he complains of his lack of time because of visitors and social encroachments and writes that he will have to "get away" in order to gain opportunity for the creative work that absorbs him to the exclusion of every other interest.

Meanwhile, Mrs. O'Brien who keeps their home here is no less busy. It is a three-acre ranch "in the rough," as she describes it, but which nevertheless needs care—no small problem in these days of scarce labor. She is herself a writer and portrait painter, and is her husband's final resource in the preparation of illustrations for his books. She modestly disclaims special talent in that particular line but has an advantage over many other artists in knowing her husband's thought and being able to make it visible. So, in the midst of her literary work, her gardening, she is working on illustrations for him.

For the illustration of a biographical sketch of Frederick O'Brien his Eastern publishers have secured a collection of very beautiful photographs made in the grounds of his Glendale home by Mr. Weston, our famous local photographer.

COMMUNITY DINNER

A community dinner was enjoyed by a group of neighbors and close friends Saturday evening, which proved a very delightful affair. It was served on the rear lawn of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rudel where an outdoor oven made possible the roasting of wienies. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Waite, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Peirce and little daughter Patricia, Mr. and Mrs. Bottsford, Mr. and Mrs. Brain, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rudel, their son, Charles Rudel, Jr., Mrs. M. J. Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, their little son, Stanton Montgomery, Miss Minola Budd, and Miss Villa Bottsford. The evening following the dinner was devoted to cards for which tables were arranged in the Rudel home.

BUILDING PERMITS PUZZLE

Building permits are the cause of considerable perplexity to a good many people. They read of a five-room house, say, costing $1500 and in the same issue of the paper is listed another five-room house estimated to cost $4000, $5000 or even $6000. The difference is entirely in the materials used and size of the rooms. Thus a five-room California or portable house, or one of solid construction with very small rooms might cost only from $1500 to $2000, while one with the same number of rooms, all of large size and with the finest of interior decoration, and with high priced lumber used in outside construction will cost an average of $800 to $1000 a room. More of the last-named kind of houses have been built in Glendale in recent months, by far.

K. K. K. CLUB

Members of the K. K. K. Club met at the home of Miss Gertrude Rock, 345 West Lomita, last week. Those who were privileged to enjoy a most pleasant evening were Miss Lillian Shropshire, Miss Leta McCoy, Miss Grace Crampton, Miss Dolie Jones, Miss Birdie Lee Shropshire, Miss Alice McCoy and the hostess, Miss Gertrude Rock.

COACHELLA VISIT

PROF. HOWE AND L. W. BABCOCK, WITH TWO GUESTS, MAKE HURRIED TRIP

L. W. Babcock, Prof. Harry Howe, Prof. Baker and Rev. Theodore Hopping drove down to Coachella Valley last Friday and returned late Saturday night. The two former went down to look after their acreage in the valley and the others simply to look around. Mr. Babcock says that all the early onions were dug some time ago and most of them marketed at good prices but when carload shipping stopped several growers were left with their crops on hand but they simply piled them up in the open fields and covered them over, or else under shade, knowing that in the dry climate of the valley they would keep for months, until carload shipping again begins. Many of these growers whose onions were put out late, planted cotton between the rows and will dig the onions when they get time, satisfied that if they do not get enough for them to pay expenses, owing to the fact that the present demand is fully satisfied, their cotton will make up for any loss, as they are guaranteed 64 cents a pound for their long staple at ginning time, which is about November and more if the market calls for it. Owing to the very short crop in the South this year, owing to the wet, cold spring, a price of $1 or more a pound is predicted at selling time.

Mr. Babcock says he understands that a large new cotton gin is to be built at Coachella in time for the fall work.

GOODYEAR MANUFACTURING OPENS

The new Goodyear manufacturing plant, located within the confines of old Ascot Park and the output of which is sold by a number of Glendale tire dealers, started work yesterday in the first unit of the great group of factories which will eventually cover several acres of ground, cost $25,000,000 and employ several thousand people. At the moment of starting whistles in Goodyear factories in three states blew simultaneously. The company has its own cotton mill to make the fabric for its tires.

GLENDAL REPUBLICANS APPROVE NOMINATIONS

So far as heard from, the nominees for president and vice president made by the Republican convention at Chicago seem to be very satisfactory to Glendale Republicans. The consensus of opinion seems to be that the differences between the three leading candidates, Wood, Lowden and Johnson, and their followers, were irreconcilable, and the nomination of any one of them would have caused considerable bitterness, so that the choice of Senator Harding harmonized to a great extent all differences. He and his running mate, Governor Coolidge, are regarded as safe, conservative men who can be relied upon to give the country a sane, business administration, is the generally expressed verdict, as heard on the streets of Glendale.

SUMMER OUTING

MARANVILLE FAMILY TO SPEND THE SUMMER IN THE HIGH SIERRAS

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Maranville, who recently sold their home at 334 Hawthorne street, will spend the summer in the mountains before locating again. With their children they left by motor Monday evening, their first destination being Big Creek, near Huntington Lake above Fresno, in the High Sierras. After a time spent at Big Creek they will visit other scenic points returning to Glendale in the course of two or three months. Mr. Maranville has left his business in capable hands and the family will locate here again on their return from the summer's outing.

OPENING OF COMMERCIAL ST.

Notices will be put up this week along Broadway setting forth the provisions of Ordinance 383 providing for the opening, laying out and widening of Commercial street, to extend from a point in the San Fernando Road a little south of its intersection by Milford street, south-easterly to a point in Broadway 400 feet west of the Kenilworth avenue intersection, and for the curve at the corner of Broadway and Central avenue.

NOTABLE BANQUET

BUSINESS MEN TO ENTERTAIN COMMITTEE ARRANGING FOR BIG CONVENTION

A meeting of committees of the Chamber of Commerce and Greater Glendale Development Association was held in City Manager Watson's office this morning to perfect arrangements for a banquet to be given Friday evening at 7 o'clock in the White Inn by the Glendale business men to entertain a committee having in charge the arrangements for the annual convention and exhibit of the National Tractor & Implement Association. This committee on arrangements came out Saturday to look for a location for the holding of the convention and on being shown Verdugo Park said: "This is the ideal spot." The convention will be held for a whole week, some time in September, and will be a notable event. The banquet will be given not only to the committee but to representatives of the four Pacific Coast associations of a similar nature. Plates will be $1.50 each for Glendale participants, the visitors, of course, to be served free. Every one is invited.

CITY ATTORNEYS FIGHT P. E. FARE INCREASE

The city attorneys of many municipalities near Los Angeles, such as Long Beach, Monrovia, Venice, etc., have associated themselves together to fight before the State Railroad Commission the Pacific Electric Company's application for permission to increase interurban as well as city fares. They make the claim that any increase now would work hardship to the cities they represent and to the P. E. Company itself, in that it would encourage the establishment of many more auto bus lines.

AMERICAN BANKERS HOLD CONVENTION

BOSTON, June 15. (United Press.)—National and international banking and other financial problems will be discussed at the three-day convention of the American Institute of Bankers commencing here today.

More than 1200 delegates with their wives are attending the annual meeting of the Institute which comprises a membership of 31,000 in the banking business of the country.

Governor Calvin Coolidge delivered the address of welcome. President Gardner B. Perry, Albany, N. Y., opened the business meeting and delivered the annual address.

Stewart D. Beckley, Dallas, Tex., vice-president, delivered the response to the address of welcome.

F. M. B. Fisher reports that in New Zealand some convicts recently went on hunger strike because a band played outside the prison. It seems that their ground of complaint was that this was not included in the sentence.—Punch.

When a man is fined for speeding 60 miles an hour he can find some consolation in the fact that he had a run for his money.

Personals

The approaches to the new concrete bridges over the Wash on Brand boulevard have been oiled and are now very satisfactory temporary roadways.

Mrs. Susie Weisling and daughters moved yesterday into the home they bought a few weeks ago at 621 East Colorado, their furniture having arrived from St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rudel of Vine street are anticipating the arrival of Mrs. Rudel's brother, Mr. Cody, from Peoria, Illinois, to attend the Democratic National Convention at San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Moore of 360 West California avenue and George Jeffries and wife of 330 Salem St., left Saturday for the Yosemite for an indefinite stay, depending on how good a time they have.

Mrs. Estella Crabbe of Mojave is spending a few weeks with her parents, I. C. Wason and wife, of 623 East Acacia avenue. Mrs. Crabbe's daughter, Mrs. Josephine Parrotine, also of Mojave, who came down with her, returned home yesterday.

Donald Davis of 371 West Wilson avenue is home from Lawrence, Kansas, where he has been attending the Kansas State University. The family came here from the Sunflower state and while loyal to the core to Glendale still they preferred the old home state's university for their son to complete his education in.

Flag Day was quite generally observed in Glendale yesterday, both by residences and business houses. One of the finest and most unusual decorations was that of the First National Bank, where the small balcony over the corner entrance was so draped with the national colors that it seemed as if the balcony was constructed of them.

Barton S. Manbert, wife and two children, have moved from Los Angeles into the beautiful new home just completed at 621 South Columbus avenue. Mrs. Manbert is a sister of Mrs. William Farlander of Riverdale Drive. The new house is of what might be called mansard Colonial style and every inch of space is utilized for the eight large rooms. The grounds are large and will be greatly beautified.

Mr. and Mrs. Heinzman and daughter, who came here from Iowa last September to see how the country looked before burning their bridges behind them and coming to stay, went back to Iowa to close out interests there and have returned to Glendale and bought a house on Pioneer, of which they expect to get possession July 1st. Mr. Heinzman is a brother-in-law of D. M. Cookingham on Central avenue in whose home the Heinzmans are guests.

Ralph B. Staub, the youngest cameraman in California or perhaps the United States, is leaving for Alaska on a tour of the country. He is going to film some wonderful and thrilling scenes in motion picture. He is going all alone and is going to work his way from town to town and when he reaches Nome he has made arrangements with a party of explorers to sail with them around the Arctic Ocean. Ralph B. Staub lives at 1439 Wilson avenue, Glendale, and has been a resident of Glendale for the past two years.

Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Pearson of 644 East Harvard street are entertaining their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Pearson, and daughter, Pauline, of Belle Fourche, South Dakota. The guests came by way of San Francisco where they attended the convention of the "Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Field Club" of the Mutual Life Insurance Co., of which J. H. Pearson is the La Fourche representative. Yesterday the visitors were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Pearson, of 114 W. Broadway. They expect to return to South Dakota the first of July.

C. G. Hezmalhach is building a small 5-room house at 539 Salem St. to cost $1500.

Henry A. Michel, one of Glendale's many building contractors, has taken out a permit to build a five-room house at 646 North Isabel, to cost $400.

F. W. Pigg and family moved last week into a new house recently completed at 526 North Jackson street. They had sold the house they lived in at 638 North Kenwood some time before.

Lights are now being installed in the new office building approaching completion by the Bentley-Schoeneman Company for occupancy by the Doctors Taylor and they will soon move in.

A lady who moved to Glendale from the East a few months ago and bought a home says she furnished it almost completely by purchasing furniture she saw advertisements of in the Evening News.

"Chuck" Wells and wife are moving to Hollywood this week on the studio grounds where Mr. Wells will work in the future. He has been with the Lew Cody studios on Verdugo Road, still known as the Astora.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harrison of 121 East Cypress street entertained at dinner Monday evening the brother and sister-in-law of the hostess and their family. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cameron and children who are now living in Los Angeles.

Elder C. S. Prout, a Seventh-Day Adventist field evangelist of some note, has moved out from Los Angeles and is occupying a home on 6th St., a little west of Mrs. D. W. Cunningham's place. He is to be in charge of the tent meeting here.

Mrs. R. H. Wells of 404 West Broadway recently returned from an extended visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hopkins, at Morenci, Arizona. Mrs. Hopkins' friends will be glad to know that she is contemplating a visit to the coast this summer.

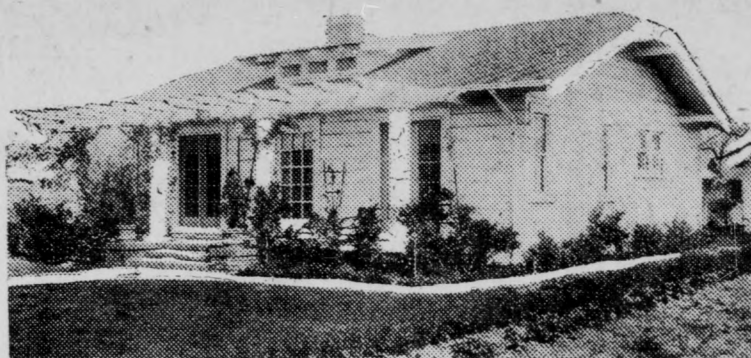

Elder J. Adams Stevens left Sunday night for Reno, Nevada, to attend and assist in the Seventh-Day Adventist camp meeting being held there. Elder Christian was already in attendance and Prof. W. W. Ruble goes tonight for the same purpose.

Guests from Bellflower, Mr. Thompson and his wife, who is the outgoing president of the First District Congress of Mothers and P. T. A.'s, were entertained at dinner and for the evening the last of the week by Mr. and Mrs. Rockwell of South Maryland avenue.

T. Satow, whose vegetable and fruit stand on the south side of Los Feliz Road and about 1500 feet west of the S. P. tracks was destroyed by fire about three weeks ago, has rebuilt and is again in business. The Glendale fire department by stretching 1500 feet of hose from the fire plug just east of the S. P. tracks, succeeded in saving the little dwelling house that adjoined the fruit stand. Satow's loss was not far from $4,000, he claimed, $600 in money he had collected the previous afternoon, going up in smoke.

J. F. Swisher and wife of 336 N. Orange street are leaving tomorrow for Lemoore, Calif., with Mrs. Swisher's mother who expects to remain in Lemoore with her daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Swisher will return to Glendale the last of the week and on the first of next week will start on an extended trip to Tacoma, Spokane, and on through South Dakota, visiting Kansas City and other Eastern points. They expect to be away from Glendale for three months or more and their friends are wishing for them a happy and pleasant journey.

WEATHER FORECAST: Partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday.

Bentley-Built Bungalows

are growing more popular as more people are looking into the matter of building homes. And more people are thinking seriously of this matter today than ever before. More people are appreciating the benefits of home ownership and the satisfaction that it brings. High rents and the scarcity of houses are continuing to bring home to many people the desirability of being independent. They are balancing the two propositions—To Rent or To Build—and they are finding that the latter far outweighs the former.

And when we show our building plans and photographs and explain our building service no further argument is necessary.

who had the pleasure of assisting in the Reciprocity Day program know how hard she worked to make a lot of amateurs appear like professionals. (Of course, the really and truly professionals who assisted us and to whom we are so deeply indebted, are not included in the above statement). We flatter ourselves she succeeded, but the credit was entirely due to her training. We are sorry to see her descend from her position as curator, but we have a special niche prepared for her.

"You know in most museums there is a hall of fame where those who have distinguished themselves are given places of honor. And so, in our hall of fame, where we already have placed the names of Mrs. Hagood, Mrs. Arnold, Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Kinney, and others (I believe Mrs. Mattison B. Jones was the founder of the Section and its first curator), we now add that of Mrs. Charles Addison Parker—1920.

"These flowers are but a small token, and most inadequately express the love and appreciation of the members of the Music Section."

Mrs. Parker graciously acknowledged the gift which, she said, meant more to her than words could tell.

Mrs. Charles Marlenee, curator for the coming year, fascinated the assembly as she told of her hopes and aspirations and of her sincere desire for the aid of each member in an endeavor to maintain the standard set by her predecessor.

The musical program, entitled "Reminiscence," was then given as follows:

Memory Jest

Chorus—"We Represent the Music Section."
Recitative—"Silence, Ladies!"
Chorus—"Oh, Wise Curator."

A Story Without a Plot

Arranged by Mesdames Parker and Hagood:

Chorus—"How Very Fortunate!"
Violin Solos—Mrs. Dorothy Armstrong Welcomes, Greig's "Spring Song" and Kreisler's "Liebesfreud."
Chorus—"I Know She'll Fill the Bill."

Vocal Solo—Mrs. Frank Arnold.
Chorus—"I Have a Great Surprise."

Vocal Solos—Mrs. Catherine Shank, "California Poppies" (Cadman), "To You" (Reid), "The Little Elfman" (Wells).

Mrs. Cunningham, Mrs. Hagood and Miss Champlain were the official accompanists and Mrs. Marlenee furnished a piano obligato for the violin numbers of her sister, Mrs. Welcome.

TED LEWIS JAZZ BAND PLAYS TWO FOX-TROTTS

The first record ever made with Ted Lewis Jazz Band selections on both sides has been released by Columbia, this month. On one side is "I'll See You in C-U-B-A," with incidental whistling by Ted Lewis himself, a fox-trot in which even the trombone sounds thirsty. And "The Moon Shines on the Moonshine," the fox-trot on the other side, sounds like the logical aftermath of the trip to Cuba, which has not yet gone dry.

Nora Bayes makes everyone want to be a little barefoot boy wearing patches on his pants by the ingratiating way in which she sings "Patches," an appealing boyhood ballad. This selection is coupled with her song "Without You" which this popular comedienne chose for the leading feature of her latest musical comedy Ladies First.

When Art Hickman's Orchestra from the St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco, plays a dance, the public finds it extremely difficult to sit still. "Along the Way to Damascus" and "Rose of Mandalay," two lively Oriental fox-trots, are this orchestra's contribution to Columbia dance records this month.

NOT THEIR KIND OF OPPORTUNITIES

From 40,000 to 50,000 Russians are reported assembled in Constantinople with the view of emigrating to the United States, but they are finding that entry into this country is not going to be as easy for some individuals as in the past. For instance, in connection with their applications for passports, they discover that would-be immigrants from Russia are now being examined rigorously as to whether they have leanings toward Bolshevism. The experience the American government has had with some Russians it afforded a haven from persecution by the czar naturally compels it to exercise greater care in admitting others.

While the country must be kept a land of opportunity to foreigners who would come here in good faith as prospective citizens, it must never be one of opportunities to the anarchistic types. Practically all of the undesirable types deported from the United States in connection with the war and after-war troubles hailed from Russia.

It would be inexcusable if, after having to deport a number of Russian immigrants, any should be received from that country without the greatest precautions against admission of more of the anarchistic and ingrate brand.

SCORE ONE FOR PROFESSOR

He was the keenest student in the class, and when an unpopular professor said: "Gentlemen, your next subject for composition will be 'manners,'" he at once rose and asked: "Can we write on bad manners, sir?" The professor looked over his spectacles at the all-conquering youth and quietly answered: "Certainly; you can write about whatever you are best acquainted with."

It seems probable that Debs does not approve of presidential candidates attending conventions in person. At least he did not set the precedent this year.

MATINEE PARTY

The College girls of the Hollywood Convent entertained in honor of the Senior Class of the Convent, Saturday afternoon, with a matinee party at the Morosco, which was followed by a tea at Hotel Alexandria. Those present from Glendale were Miss Virginia Berry of 101 North Central, a member of the College Class, and Miss Alice Ewins of 615 South Verdugo Road, a member of the Senior Class.

er present in the flesh to participate in the service.

All united in singing "Auld Lang Syne," and after a selection by the orchestra and a song by the quartet, Judge Works was introduced by the Exalted Ruler, and made an eloquent address on "What the Flag Stands For." He referred to the fact that everywhere in the United States Elks were joining in this service to honor the flag and that it was not a lip service but a never ending service of devotion to those patriotic principles upon which the order is founded. He congratulated the audience on its good fortune in being permitted to share such a service and declared that such a gathering testified to the patriotic sentiment that animates the hearts of men in this community and all communities since we have awakened to a deeper appreciation of what patriotism means.

In the main his address amplified the history of the flag already recited by Esteemed Loyal Knight Dibern. He dwelt at some length on the various "rattlesnake" flags which antedated our present flag and which still remain the emblem of South Carolina. He quoted Benjamin Franklin's explanation of the employment of the rattlesnake as a symbol, viz: because of its watchfulness and because it is the terror of its enemies.

He traced the rude beginning of flags as emblems to designate tribes before they grew into nations, and how emblems entered into them which would be humorous but for the serious facts they represented at the time.

The orator declared that the flag not only stands for the great ideals toward which America is striving but like the mantle of charity it stands for the imperfections and evils of our political and social systems, it stands for profiteering and for the fact that we as a people are to a large extent burdened with materiality when we ought to be uplifted by spirituality. In other words it stands for the shortcomings of human nature and human government. "I believe," said he, "that we as a people have the best government on earth, but while our flag is burdened with those conditions we must strive to remove them."

"I do not know whether ours is the most beautiful flag; I only know it seems to us to be the most beautiful. We are not impartial enough to know. Let us make each one of these stars a hope that we as a nation may aim with equal fidelity towards other nations for the brotherhood of man."

Appreciative applause marked the conclusion of the address which was followed with close attention, and after those assembled had united in singing "America," and a concluding number had been played by the orchestra, the audience was dismissed.
